

The Silver Wattle Quaker Centre, 1063 Lake Road Bungendore NSW offers:

- a refuge from a busy and troubled world
- a peaceful 1000 hectare property overlooking Weerewa (Lake George) close to Canberra, accessible by train from Sydney & beyond.
- an ideal venue for small courses & conferences, groups or personal retreats with meeting facilities, individual rooms & camping options
- a safe location for confidential meetings
- a warm & welcoming space for people of all faiths & none
- a place of natural beauty offering extensive walks, a labyrinth, sacred fire circle & other dedicated areas for reflection
- a contemplative environment, with an opportunity of a daily rhythm
- somewhere to listen to ourselves, others & the wisdom of the land.

We invite you to experience what Silver Wattle has offered to other grateful guests including first nation gatherings, diverse faith communities, university colloquia, environmental groups, carers, artists & writers' retreats.

We provide:

- 14 bedrooms for up to 25 people (14 maximum under COVID restrictions)
- a large dining room for up to 30 people (14 maximum under COVID restrictions)
- a meeting area for up to 40 people (15 maximum under COVID restrictions)
- a browsing library and sitting room
- a large commercial kitchen and cool food storage
- wheelchair friendly access.

Quakers have been upholding peace, sustainability and justice for over 350 years. The Silver Wattle Quaker Centre has been operating for over ten years as a not-for-profit commercial enterprise for renewal, hope, healing & learning.

More information on facilities and courses is available at: www.silverwattle.org.au or contact our Centre Coordinator, Brydget Barker-Hudson:

admin.office@silverwattle.org.au, (02) 6238 0588 or (0470) 200 921.

*come with purpose
... go in peace*

